

Stories that reflect the ongoing climate issues among Global Ministries partners.

Please click a link to learn more about how our partners are being impacted by these very important climate issues.

Creation care efforts by international partners evolve with each natural disaster and shift in weather patterns. Partners cope with the negative impacts of climate change by protecting and nurturing the natural world, preserving resources, and seeking to ensure food security.

The Greatest of These

Robert Howard served with the Pacific Christian Council (I will say he tends to more just list the work that is happening a little less reflection) <https://www.globalministries.org/reunited-with-the-pacific-council-of-churches/>

John Campbell-Nelson has returned from Indonesia and concluded but through the years many of his newsletters have had environmental themes: <https://www.globalministries.org/building-understanding/>

A new mission coworker in Indonesia, Rebecca, writes here about ecology: <https://www.globalministries.org/protecting-gods-home/>

Recent news on the tree planting project in Palestine: <https://www.globalministries.org/wcc-news-planting-trees-and-working-for-peace-in-palestine/>

And again Phyllis (<https://www.globalministries.org/people/phyllis-byrd/>) has written quite a bit about work related to this project <https://www.globalministries.org/project/tree-for-life/>
